

I first want to say that I've been following this comic for around two thirds of my lifetime (born in late 02 started reading them around 07). I'm basically the loremaster of the entire comic, I know everything there is in it. I nearly cried during the childhood arc.

These comics were the bread and butter of my childhood. They are one of the things that helped shape me while growing up. They helped me through rough times and despite the fact that the comics usually had some flaws I really loved the characters and the short but sweet stories.

Now his shit is nothing but shitty Lewds. It makes my childhood heart feel like its been torn out and stabbed with a million pairs of scissors. I'm 17f now and this is the first time that I've actually cried since I was 14.

This seems like the bane of a lot of artists who pivot toward porn. Their art loses a lot of its simple charm and cuteness (https://www.vgcats.com/comics/?strip_id=347) (https://www.vgcats.com/comics/?strip_id=348) when they completely fucking Bastardize it like this (<https://rule34.xxx/index.php?page=post&s=view&id=2807083>).

And I wanna say that this shit is just fucking shameful.

I was okay with him locking early content behind a paywall. I was even willing to accept him making gotcha wallpapers teasing Aeris nudes.

But I can't stand to see what was one of my favorite comic series turned into NOTHING but smut and disgusting fetish shit. I would have preferred the comic outright dying completely. It's really a spit in the face to the fans that have been there since the start. And not only that, but all of it looks like fucking garbage anyways.

But you wanna know the worst part? The thing that gets my blood boiling every time I think about it? VG Cats used to have a forum, HOSTED by Scott himself. It was a nice little community that kept to itself and abided by the rules set there. And Scott ended up nuking it. Why? Because people were ALLUDING to, not even directly posting on the forum, but referring and linking to crude fanart and porn people had been drawing. A whole community, dead, because the creator was too much of a prude to give any kind of leeway to anything remotely sexual.

And now he runs a porn patreon of his characters. His metaphorical children.

Fuck Scott. I hope his kid grows up to fucking despise him, just as I know Leo and Aeris would.
